Let Bell's great three-year-old Hermis, an odds-on favorite, took the historic Jerome Handicap without trouble. The distance was a mile and a quarter over the hill and Jacob Worth's Oom Paul made the running until well into the home stretch, followed closely all the way by Perry Belmont's Numeral. But when Rice let Hermis down it was all over, for the Hermence colt rushed to the front and won easily by three lengths in the excellent time of 2064. Hunter Raine got into the place under Redfern's persuasion and kept it from Oom Paul by a head.

King Pepper, the favorite, took the Manhattan Handicap for two-year-olds and upward over the Eclipse course in a flerce drive, Redfern getting him up in the last few strides so that he won by a head. The time was 1:12. Bell's great three-year-old Hermis,

THOROUGHBREDS SOLD.

Omaha II., an American-Bred Horse, Is Star of the Sale.

Twenty-nine thoroughbreds, brought from England recently, were sold at auction in the American Horse Exchange last night They were consigned by Douglas H. Grand of Beckenham, Kent, England, and all except four are English bred. These four are Ameri-can-bred horses and were sent to England when yearlings. They have been fairly suc-cessful and one of them, Omaha II., by imp. Watercress, was the star of the sale, bringing

Mr. Grand conducted the sale himself, and occasionally he got mixed in the bids, calling guineas instead of dollars. His way of telling about the horses was a little confusing. When the yearlings were sold he announced that not one had been "backed," meaning that they were untried. The yearlings were the first lots disposed of. A black colt by Kilwarlin was bought by W. Lakeland for $1,65). L. V. was bought by W. Lakeland for $1,65). I., V. Bell gave $1,500 for a bay colt by Sir Hugo, the Derby winner, out of a St. Simon mare. The sixteen yearlings averaged $653.

Ten horses in training were sold and they brought $10,775. H. M. Ziegler was a big buyer, securing six. The Rancocas Stud got the lowest-priced horse in the sale, a two-year-old filly by Kilwarlin, for $100.

Eight stallions were catalogued, but only three were sold. Good Morning, by Gallinule, was bid up to $3,900 and then withdrawn. CORBETT MEETS LENNY.

Featherweight Champton Boxes Six Rounds With Him at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7 .- Young Corbett to-night made his first appearance in the ring in the East since he fought McGovern, before the Industrial A. C. The featherweight champion's opponent was Eddie Lenny, a wellseasoned Quaker lad, and the two met in a six-round "go" at catchweights. A large a six-found go at catchweights. A large crowd turned out to see the mill, which proved to be all one-sided. Corbett gave Lenny a good drubbing, dropping him once in the first and three times in the last round, and was an easy winner, although no decision was rendered. Lenny was saved from a clean knockout by the call of time in the final round.

Sullivan, chairman of the Record Committee, turned the implement over to H. E. Buermeyer yesterday and on the official Government scales it was found to weigh only 10ur pounds and three ounces. The discus was old and battered and should not have been used.

It was reported at Morris Park yesterday that the members of the State Racing Commission had been informed by persons identifled with the administration at Albany that in view of the heavy betting operations that have been going on at racetracks in this State it would be advisable to take measures to curtail speculation in future as much tion to the Jockey Club to this effect and that the stewards of the latter body will, from now on, frown on all such operations as those conducted by the "Big Store," the name given to the book conducted by Joe Ullman and Kid Weller. Grey Friar's victory in the first part of the Matron Stakes was decidedly popular. Those who study past performances did not let the son of St. George—Una B. get away from them. It was at Saratoga that Grey Friar demonstrated the fact that he is one of the best two-year-olds of the year. He first started in a dash of five and a half furlongs on Aug. 6, and with 107 pounds he disposed of Catechise and Glennevis. He started on Aug. 13 in the Troy Stakes and was second to the winner, Plater, finishing in front of an excellent field. Grey Friar won the Grand Union Hotel Stakes on Aug. 20, carrying 114 pounds and beating, among others, Judith Campbell, Whitechaped, Sailmaker, Maxnie, Charles Elwood and Rigodon. In the Albany Handicap run on Aug. 27, Grey Friar took up 117 pounds and won easily, beating Eugenia Burch, Counterpoise, Sailmaker and others. With three victories in four starts he was played yesterday very strongly in the place books.

The defeat of Acefull was particularly disappointing to John E. Madden. After the race Madden said:

Acefull ran a good game race, but was beaten fairly as far as I could see. I have not decided whether he will be sent to England to run in next year's Derby and will not do so until I have consulted with Messrs. Whitney and Duryea, who sail for this country on the Oceanic to-morrow.

The fact that Grey Friar gave Acefull five pounds according to the scale and an impressive beating caused turfmen to reach the conclusion after the race that Mr. Hitchcock has the champion two-year-old of the season. Grey Friar was bred by P. T. Chinn and is every inch a racehorse in appearance. He has several other engagements this fall in which to display his worth.

Tom Welsh announced yesterday that next season he will train exclusively for Julius Fleischmann.

BREAK IN SCHOOL ATHLETICS. Split Likely if a Certain Eligibility Measure Goes Through.

The Alumni Advisory Committee of the New York Interscholastic Athletic Association held its first annual meeting at Cutler School yesterday afternoon. The committee comprises the alumni and head masters of the schools in the association, who organized for the purpose of purifying athletics in the schools. The schools represented at the meeting were: A. Williams, head master, Brother Thomas faculty De La Salle Institute: Dr. Moore, faculty, Columbia Grammar, W. Hazen, head master, Barnard, A. ing clause in the constitution:

No one shall represent any school of this association in any athletic contest until he shall have been a member of said school a full calendar year, and have been in actual attendance thereat for three or more hours a day.

and have been in actual attendance thereat for three or more hours a day.

Head M ster Williams protested against this and said his school would resign from the association if it went through. With both Dwight and Hamilton Institute against the clause the delegates to the New York Interscholastic Athletic Association will have some knotty points to decide at their first annual meeting next Tuesday. The whole constitution as revised will be presented to the boys for adoption, and if adopted mean the dropping of Dwight School and Hamilton Institute. If turned down it means the downfall of the Advisory Committee.

Both Head M sters Williams and Shaw are up in arms against the new clause. They declare it is unfair to any boy who pays full fee to bar-bim from competing in athletics. They also say it casts a reflection on the honesty of a head master. It is not at all unlikely, if the clause is adopted, that Dwight, Hamilton, Trinity and Horace Mann schools will form a new association.

American League Manager Here. Clark Griffith, the crack pitcher and reported manager of the New York American League team, was in town yesterday and said positively that not only would New York be in the American League next year, but that he would be the manager.

There are no ifs and ands about it," said Grifith. "We are coming in here without doubt, and with a strong team. We have the grounds and everytting is all ready." Harry White, the best pitcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, has signed with Comiskey for next season, according to report, and American League partisans are declaring that Detroit has landed Willie Keeler.

At Pittsburg yesterday the Pittsburgs won the first game of the series for the world's championship by defeating the All-Americans. Pittsburg outplayed the Americans at every point and showed superiority in base running and fielding.

given to the book conducted by Joe Ullman and Kid Weller. While the Jockey Club never has openly recognized betting at Metropolitan tracks, it will be an easy matter to control affairs in the various betting rings through the medium of the racing associations which let out the privileges to the bookmakers.

With 20,000 persons at the Westchester track yesterday there was not a sign of disorder until the races were over. Then there was a fight in the rear of the grand stand which caused considerable excitement. The participants were Jockey Landry and a horse owner named Van Praag. The latter cornered Landry near the main entrance and proceeded to rain blows on the jockey's face, at the same time yelling:

"If you do not stop talking to my wife I'll kill you!"

When bystanders separated the combatants Landry had a black eye and a bleeding mouth. The jockey immediately hunted up Robert Pinkerton and wanted to have Van Randran was unable to finish.

L. V. Bell's three-year-old coit Col. Bill came near winding up his turf career yesterday. Just after the first race he was sent out to work over the hill. The Eclipse course had been railed off and the boy who had the mount did not see the obstruction until he was within fifty yards of it. Col. Bill was going at top speed but the boy pulled him up quickly and steered him for a small opening about four feet wide, through which he passed in safety. It was a narrow escape for the colt and the boy.

Adbell Breaks Leg and May Have to Be Destroyed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 7. -John E. Madden's Lexington, Ky., Get. 7.—John E. Madden's noted trotting stallion Adbell, while playing in his paddock at W. W. Estell's Elmwood farm, in some way broke his left foreleg and may have to be destroyed. Abdell took a record as a yearling of 2:23 which is the world's record. He sired Adebella, who got a record of 2:23½ as a three-year-old. He is a son of the noted Beautiful Bells, whose products, apparently, are doomed to misfortune, she having lost five famous sons in the prime of their careers. Bell Boy, who cost $55,000, was burned: Electric Bell, Bow Bells and St. Bell died of pneumonia. Abdell cost Madden $10,000 last winter.

Bohlen, who has been spending the summer in England, had just returned and reported that although the schedule for the team which will visit England next summer had not been completed, he was assured by Secretary Alcock of the Surrey club that there will be no trouble in securing the desired dates. Matches will be played with the leading county teams of England, and will include Yorkshire, Lancashire, Surrey Middlesex, Kent, Sussex and Somerset, while games will also be played with Oxford and Cambridge and with a representative team in Ireland and Scotland. itely decided to send a cricket team to Eng-

The Rajah Makes Disastrous Breaks in First Heat-Twinkle Captures the Tennessee Stake for Pacers and Equals

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 7.-Eight thousand persons cheered wildly this afternoon when the roan filly Nella Jay came home the winner of the classic Kentucky Futurity for threeyear-old trotters, which marked the opening of the fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association. They cheered again when Hudson put the whip to the flying Twinkle and brought her home the winner of the Tennessee Stake for 2.08 pacers. The track was lightning fast as evidenced by Twinkle's mile in 2.05 in which she not only lowered her mark of 2.05%, but equalled the record for the stake made by Dan Patch last

The Futurity was a truly trotted race, save perhaps the first heat, when the favorite, The Rajah, was distanced after making disastrous breaks. Gail Hamilton had no trouble in winning the first and second heats. The third went to Nella Jay. Pat Henry led to the distance pole, when Nella Jay collared him and passed the son of John G. Carlisla as if he were tied. The roan filly won easily by a length. The fourth heat it was all Nelia Jay. Again in the fifth when Gail Hamilton was asked to come through she left her feet in the stretch and the heat and race went to the sister of Country Jay. Dan R, before the Tennessee, sold for $50, and the field $20, but Geers was never able to get a heat with the chestnut gelding.

Both of the purse events proved overthrows for the favorities. Baron Bell, the choice at $50 to the field's $110, did not finish in the money, while Miss Willamont closed at $30 to the field's $100 and could do no better than fourth.
